Dr. David G. Reis

About Dr. David Reis: As to professional bonafides, in summary, I have consulted on billions of dollars or corporate health care spending and has served thousands of patients undergoing heart surgery, device therapy, transplantation and rehabilitation and directed Yale University's designated outpatient cardiac rehab center. I advise architects and designers in master health property repurpose and re-task initiatives, including a $100M project to repurpose the NYC Health and Hospitals Corporation's footprint and enterprise.

Dr. David Reis is a Cardiologist, with 32 years of private practice experience in interventional and clinical cardiology. Dr. Reis has concurrently held national consultancy medical directorships in Fortune 500 Health Benefits Design and Utilization Review. He has advised his regional board of the Urban Land Institute and has national interest in urban revitalization and provides advisory to health care architects and designers. Dr. Reis directed Yale University's designated outpatient cardiac rehab center achieving national certification for service excellence. He provides strategic guidance for developers of senior housing. Dr. Reis is a past member of the Board of Directors of GallopNYC, a non-profit, providing therapeutic equestrian programs and services to special needs children"

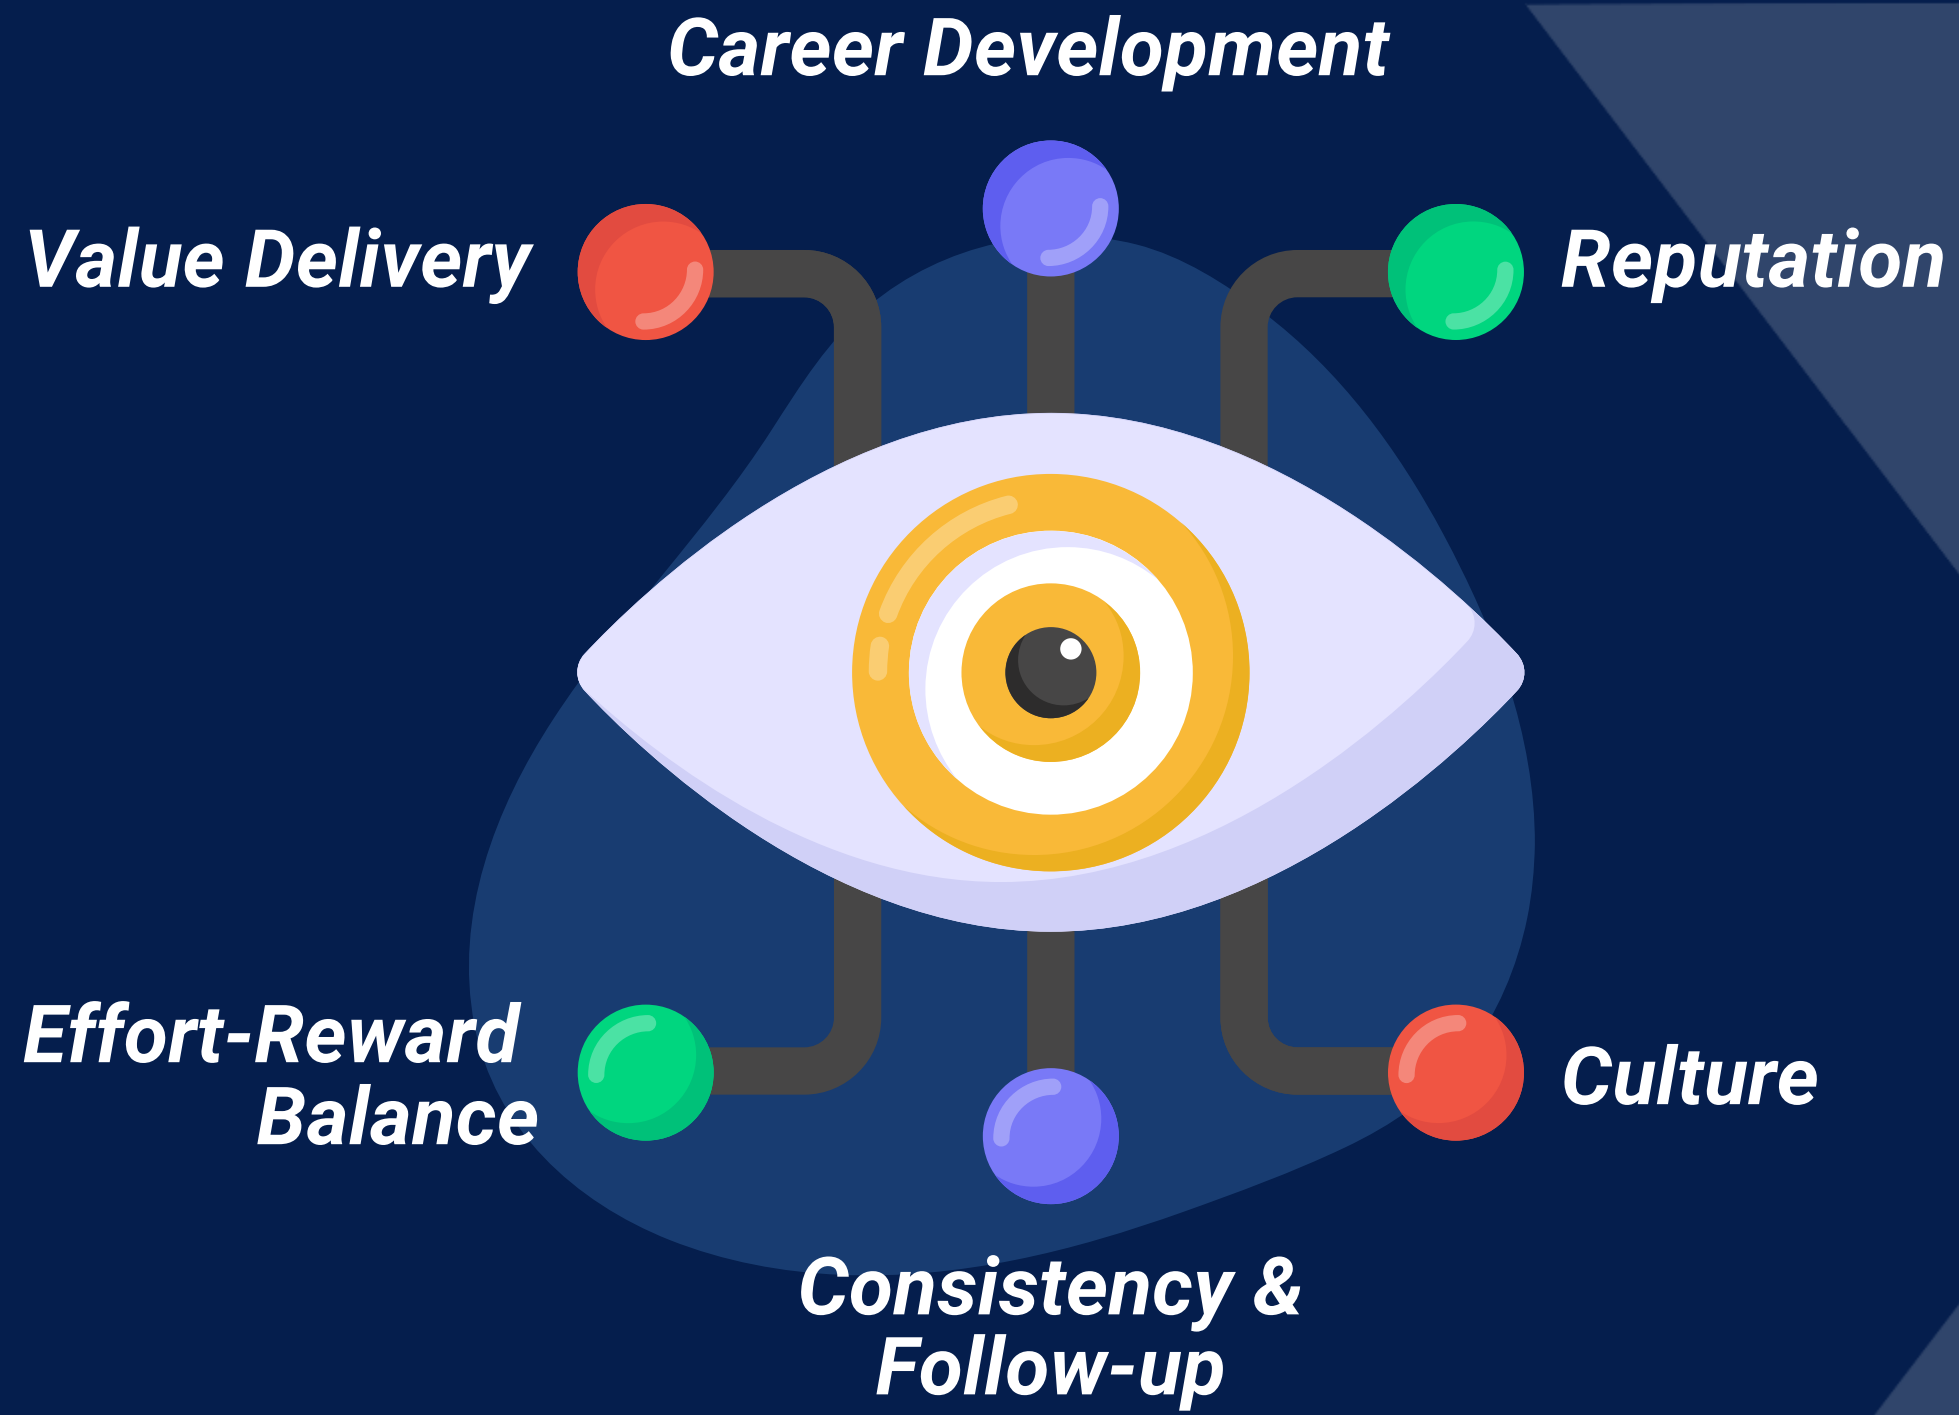

Metaphysical Considerations

We are extensions of a Universe. Collectively our light never exhausts, but bounces off each of our stars, creating energy.

So? How you Self-Define is how you will Align!

YOUR Consistency is the YOUR KEY to YOUR success

Stop, Start & Continue

Stop Making the Same Mistakes (Collaborate to Innovate)
Start DOING What's Missing (Create)
Continue Growing What's Working (Strategic Leverage)

- Does your process reflect you authentically ?
- Are there steps in your procedures that are consistently unfulfilled?
- Are your turn-around times consistent with your engineered process?
- Do you regularly inspect, or "set it and forget it" in attraction?
- Are you short ranged focused or do you have a long game?
- Does your brand energize you or are you prone to mission fatigue?
